

DELECTABLY CHIC

MIN WAI & JASMINE
05 June 2010
Hilton Kuala Lumpur

Sometimes it is not the big bashes that leave an indelible impression on our hearts, but the charming intimate celebrations. By keeping their delicately elegant nuptials wonderfully cozy, Min Wai and Jasmine found the time to mingle with family and friends, while maintaining an understated yet fabulous feel for the whole event.

The wedding dinner, garden party and tea party all encapsulate the same elegant lines of modern simplicity.

We also love how the subtle décor was a perfect backdrop for Jasmine's array of spectacular gowns, starting with understated tulle, followed by a red Kua. Jasmine also wore a striking scarlet gown, a white beaded number and a darling lilac silk Grecian-style dress.

